

The map displays a cadastral layout of the Dhamodi village area. The central part of the map is filled with numerous small, numbered land parcels. A pink boundary line defines the perimeter of the village. A blue dashed line runs diagonally from the northwest to the southeast. A red line highlights a specific path or boundary within the village. The map is surrounded by other villages: Rembhote to the north, Ainpur to the northeast, Waghadi to the northwest, Bhamalwadi to the west, Shingadi to the southwest, Golwadi to the south, Kandwel to the south, Sulwadi to the east, Shemalde to the southeast, and Mondhalde to the south. The map is overlaid with a grid showing latitude and longitude coordinates.
