

This topographic map depicts the Khatav village area, characterized by numerous land parcels outlined in black. The map includes contour lines in brown, indicating elevation changes. A prominent pink boundary line encloses the main village area. A blue line, likely representing a water body or a specific administrative boundary, runs diagonally across the lower portion of the map. The map is overlaid with a grid of latitude and longitude coordinates. Surrounding areas are labeled: 'Ner' to the northwest, 'Vetane' to the north, 'Ranshingwadi' and 'Katalgewadi' to the northeast, 'Umbarmale' to the east, 'Nidhar' to the southeast, 'Dharpur' to the south, 'Khatgun' to the southwest, and 'Katgun' to the west. The map is densely populated with numerical data points, possibly representing parcel numbers or elevation readings, and various colored lines (yellow, red, purple) that may denote different types of boundaries or infrastructure.
